Welcome guide exchange students

Dear International Students,

We are pleased to welcome you at the Faculty of Arts and Humanities !

International and intercultural education are among our priorities : each year more than 120 exchange students are welcomed and more than 100 FLSH's students study abroad ; we have 130 partner universities and 14 nationalities in our teaching team.

During your stay you will have the possibility to learn new topics in the main areas we work in (literature, culture and communication / history and politics / languages and international affairs / psychology). You will discover also new teaching and educational methods.

At the crossroads of Paris, London and Brussels, Lille is a major metropolis of the Euroregion : take the opportunity to discover the city, French culture and gastronomy and travel around Europe !

We are here to guide and support you during your time with us.

FLSH International Relations Team

The warmth of the faculty, the diversity of the student body, and the richness of academic offerings have all contributed to an experience that exceeds my wildest expectations. Beyond the classroom, Lille has become my home away from home, with its charming streets, vibrant culture, and welcoming atmosphere.

FRENCH HEALTH INSURANCE AND HEALTH SERVICES

FOR EUROPEAN UNION STUDENTS

If you are coming from the EU, you should ask for the European Health Insurance Card in your country, before your departure.

In France, even for a basic visit to your general practitioner, you first have to pay a 26€50 fee before being reimbursed by the CPAM (Caisse Primaire d'Assurance Maladie - French Health Insurance Office). To be reimbursed, you will need to go to the CPAM with your European Health Insurance Card, the treatment forms and a RIB/IBAN. The amount will be transferred to your bank account shortly.

FOR NON-EUROPEAN UNION STUDENTS

Even if students come to France with their own health insurance, the French Government requires non-European Union students (EU) spending more than 3 months in France to register with the French health insurance, called "Sécurité Sociale". It's free of charge.

BEFORE YOUR ARRIVAL IN FRANCE :

Get a certified copy of your birth certificate translated by a sworn translator with an official apostil.

UPON YOUR ARRIVAL IN FRANCE :

During Welcome Session we will explain you how to register to French Social Security.

Sécurité Sociale refunds about 70 % of medical costs. Sécurité Sociale doesn't cover you if you travel outside of France, in case of repatriation or for civil liability.

Students have the option of getting complementary student insurance to obtain better refunds. It is highly recommended that students take a complimentary health and travel insurance for the duration of their stay in France.

There are 2 mains insurance companies in France :

LIFE IN LILLE

At the heart of Europe, Lille is particularly fortunate in her geographical location.

With high-speed trains, easy access to the Channel Tunnel and a whole network of motorways passing through the city, Lille is less than an hour from Paris and Brussels and less than two hours from London and Amsterdam. Today Lille is a dynamic, innovative city with about 1.5 million inhabitants, proud of its industrial, cultural and business heritage. It is an important financial centre with numerous international companies, but also attracts thousands of tourists every year.

Lille was European Cultural Capital in 2004 and is a city overflowing with life. As the third largest student city in France, the many universities, colleges and training institutes give Lille its young, dynamic population. The presence of so many students means that Lille is the place to be for partying, cultural events, sport and eating out.

“

My favorite thing is that there is always something to do and something going on in the city : never really boring. I live in a shared flat, I sometimes go out with my house mates. I feel like it's very social compared to what I'm used to. I go to school, I go back home and I go out again. A very lively period. Compared to Paris or any big city, I feel like Lille is very cozy and very easy to live in.

REGULATIONS ON THE CAMPUS AND FOR THE EXAMS

SECURE CAMPUS

All students present in the university must have their badge on them at all times where the security staff can see it. You need your badge in order to get in or out of the buildings via the security barriers. It has your name on it and it is forbidden to lend it to someone else or to use it to let someone else into the buildings. If you lose it, have it stolen or forget to bring it, please go to the security lodge at the visitors' entrance to the main building (east wing of 60 Boulevard Vauban).

ATTENDANCE

Reminder : Class attendance is compulsory

CONDUCT AND ATTITUDE WHILE IN CLASS

- Respectful behavior
- Cell phones must be turned off in class
- Punctuality

DROPPING A CLASS

If you want to drop a class before the end of the semester, you must inform the international relations coordinator immediately, by e-mail or orally. Once the list of classes has been agreed on and signed by the student, it is no longer possible to drop a class, except when the student's home university explicitly requires it or when there has been a change in the class schedules.

REGULATIONS FOR MIDTERMS AND EXAMS

You must be in the room at least 30 minutes before the beginning of the exam or midterm. Doors will be closed 15 minutes before the exam begins. Students arriving late for an exam will NOT be allowed into the examination room, whatever the reason.

- Upon entering the exam room, there must be complete silence. You must leave at the entrance: bag, pencil case, personal items, particularly your turned off cell phone.
- You may not have any documents (unless otherwise authorized).
- You can only start the exam when the proctor allows it. You are not allowed to write on your scrap paper before the exam has started.
- ONLY FOR EXAMS : Once you have finished, you must be sure to seal your test paper (fold and stick the upper corner containing your name).
- If you cheat or are suspected of cheating, you will be summoned by the Disciplinary Council

VALID ABSENCES

The reasons listed below are the only ones considered valid by the Faculty of Arts and Humanities :

- Medical reasons (only on production of original medical certificate),
- Academic commitment in other establishments of Lille Catholic University or the student's home university (on production of an official letter or email from the institution concerned),
- Death of a close relative (death certificate requested).

WRITTEN TESTS AND EXAMS

You received the academic calendar before you arrived in France. You must adhere to it.

Written tests will take place during the class or on Monday mornings or on Friday afternoons. When written tests occur during class, the teacher will usually inform the students 1 or 2 weeks in advance. Moreover, an international student can have 2 or 3 written tests in the same half-day. If the total length does not exceed 4 hours and half, there is no problem.

The student must check all the information about exams himself.

If the absence of the student is not justified for the midterm or exam:

- No other alternative date will be scheduled,
- He will automatically have to sit the retakes,
- Otherwise, the ECTS credits won't be transferred to his home university.

If the student does not submit any assignment for the course, then he has no right to retake.

For information, electronic dictionaries are forbidden for written tests or exams.

RETAKES

The dates of the retake exam sessions are known in advance.

If you are in France you will take the same exams as the French students. If you have returned to your home university at the time of the retakes, the retakes will be sent to you by email to be done for a specified date during the retake exam session. The teacher will assign a new grade for the retake and the new grade will be the only one that counts, whatever the result. Please note that if the new grade lowers your GPA and if you get less than an average of 10/20, some ECTS credits will not be transferred. If you do not submit your work before the due date, it will be noted as "incomplete" on your transcript of records. No credits will be given for the course in question.

Please note : it will not be possible to do some oral retake examinations after leaving France.

PLAGIARISM

Plagiarism is the total or partial, literal or veiled use of a text which is someone else's property without acknowledging the source, and leading people to think it is one's own, whether for an examination, an assignment or an assessment (final report for a work placement, tutorial classes, etc...). Any assessed work identified as plagiarism will be considered as fraud and will be punished as such.

Punishment :

Any work (exam, final report, assignment...) considered as fraud will be given 0/20. Moreover, the work could be totally rejected, the student could be forbidden to sit for the exam session or the student could be asked to do the work again. Besides, a disciplinary committee may pronounce stricter disciplinary measures such as permanent exclusion from the Faculty.
